IMPORTANT TO ALL.

DR. SWAYNE,
The discoverer and compounder of the far-famed
Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry
and other valuable preparations, entered upon his professional career with the important advantage of a regular medical education in one of the oldest and best Schools in Philadelphia, and, perhaps, in the world. He subsequently served a faithful term of practice in the Philadelphia Dispensary, and for many years attended in the Hospital. In these institutions he enjoyed the most ample opportunities of obtaining an insight into diseases in all their various forms, as well as for ascertaining the best methods of their treatment. In offering, therefore, to the people of the United States the fruits of his extensive professional experience in the medical compounds as the best results of his skill and observation, he feels that he is but proffering a boon to every family throughout the land, resting, as he does, confidently in the merits and efficatious virtue of the remedies he herewith commends. The vast amount of testimony from all parts of the world has proven "DOCTOR SWAYNE'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY" the most efficacious remedy known, and it is admitted by our most eminent physicians, and all who have witnessed its wonderful healing properties. The WILD CHERRY in all ages of the world and in all countries where it is known has been justly celebrated for its wonderful medicinal qualities, but its great power to cure some of the worst and most distressing diseases among us was never fully ascertained until the experiments of that skilful physician, Dr. Swayne, had demonstrated its high adaptation, in combination with Pine Tree Tar, and other equally valuable vegetable productions, which chemically combined renders its action tenfold more certain and beneficial in curing all diseases of the throat, breast and lungs. DR. SWAYNE'S WILD CHERRY COMPOUND strikes at the root of disease by purifying the blood, restoring the liver and kidneys to healthy action, invigorating the nervous and shattered constitution. If your druggist or storekeeper does not have it, do not be put off by any other remedy that may be offered, but send to us direct, and we will forward a half dozen to any address, freight paid, on receipt of the price, $1 per bottle, or $5 the half dozen. Address letters to DR. SWAYNE & SON, 330 North Sixth street, Philadelphia. No charge will be made for advice.

Ask Your Druggist for Them.

Females and all who value health should never be without DR. SWAYNE'S TAR AND SARSAPARILLA PILLS, as they purify the blood, remove all obstructions, cleanse the skin of all pimples and blotches, and bring the rich color of health to the pale cheek. Female irregularities are restored to a healthy condition. They are a certain cure for Sick and Nervous Headache. As a Dinner Pill, nothing can exceed them: take one, two, or three, as may be found necessary; unlike others, they neither gripe, produce nausea, or any other unpleasant sensation. While they are as powerful as it is possible for a medicine to be and be harmless. These Pills cleanse out the disordered humors, enrich and purify the blood, remove all unhealthy bilious secretions of the stomach and bowels, causing a perfectly healthy state of the liver, and are undoubtedly the best cathartic and antibilious medicine yet discovered; and we are determined that the sick shall have them at a price within the means of the poorest (25 cents a box of 30 Pills.) If your druggist or storekeeper has not got them, do not be put off by any others that may be offered in their place, but send to us direct, and we will forward by mail, on receipt of the price, 25 cents a box or five boxes $1.

SKIN DISEASES.

Swayne's Ointment,
Is particularly adapted to all forms of skin diseases. Cures even when all other remedies and treatment fail.

Cures Tetter,	Scald Head,
Salt Rheum,	Ringworm,
Barber's Itch,	Pimples,
Prarie Itch	Sores,
Sore Heads,	Army Itch,
Humors, Piles,	Blotches, Scurvy,
All Eruptions,	Chronic Erysipelas of the face.

SWAYNE'S OINTMENT
Seems to cure every case, leaving the skin smooth and clear without a blemish behind.

Itching Piles
is generally preceded by a moisture, like perspiration, distressing itching, as though pin worms were crawling in or about the rectum, particularly at night when undressing, or in bed after getting warm. It appears in summer as well as winter, oftentimes shows itself around the private parts, and is not confined to males only, but is quite as frequent that females are sorely afflicted, particularly in times of pregnancy, extending into the lungs, proving distressing almost beyond the powers of endurance. Cases of long standing, pronounced incurable, have been permanently cured by simply applying
SWAYNE'S OINTMENT.

Poetical.

HOW THE DEACON'S AGOIN' TO VOTE.

I've been over to see the Deacon, and John, as sure as you're born
The Deacon's agoin' for Tilden, and he thinks that we need reform.
Why he's voted the other way, John, for nigh unto sixteen years,
And now he's goin for Tilden I'm durned if I believe my ears.

I tried for to reason against him, and I talked of the Southern debt,
And I told him that Tilden's party would pay them small bills yet;
But he laughed and he said, "Well, neighbor, allowin' your statement's true,
That the Democrats mean to pay it, can you tell me the day it's due?"

Well, I was nonplussed for certain, and cornered as sure as fate,
I'd heard of the debt in speeches, but never had heard the date
That they meant to pay their bills on, and the Deacon unbuttoned his coat,
Taking from one of his pockets a Ten Confederate note.

And he said, "Here's one of 'em neighbor, for part o' their debt I hold,
I'd laid one side to look at, but I'd rather have the gold,
So if there's a chance t collect it in any way you see
I wish you'd give the day and date they'll pay the cash to me."

Well, the face of that note read this way, "When some of the nations of earth
Shall have recognized that to a nation the south lands have given birth,
We promise to pay the bearer ten dollars—John, it's true.
There wasn't a nation did it. The debt will never be due.

Then I spoke on the "outrage" question, the same as I've talked to you,
How the whites was killen' the niggers spite of all the north could do,
And he said, "Why haven't they stopped it? Each time for the last ten years,
I've noticed that just 'fore 'lection the party's convulsed with fears.

"In regard to the "outrage" question, you've got too sound a head
To believe in Bugaboo stories that send little children to bed,
As for me I'm tired of voting for men that'll plunder and steal,
I've had a talk with my conscience and made up my mind to wheel.

"And turn my back on the party whose promises come to naught;
To turn my back on the leaders that Credit Mobilier bought;
To vote for the Rings no longer, I'm goin' for honest ways,
And a 'stay of proceedings' on stealing, and not again for Hayes.

"I'm goin' to vote for a leader that puts his hand to the wheel:
I'm goin' to vote with a party that says, 'Thou shalt not steal,'
I want to vote for a Leader of whom the rings are afraid,
And so I shall vote for Tilden, the choice that the people made.

"I'm tired of the heavy taxes that the poor men have to pay,
I'm tired of a paper dollar, not worth a dollar to-day.
Just look at the pledges made us, the things they've promised to do,
Dishonored to-day and worthless," John, what he said is true;

I thought the matter all over, since I sat here at home,
And, John, I've made my mind up, the Deacon shan't "go it alone."
So to-night swing out the old flag, and early to-morrow morn,
Beneath it we'll nail a streamer for "Tilden and Reform."

TILDEN ON WAR CLAIMS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24, 1876.

To the Hon. Abraham S. Hewitt:

Sir: I have received your letter informing me that Republicans high in authority are publicly representing that "the South desire not without hope" to obtain payment for losses by the late war and to have "provision made for the rebel debt and for the losses of slaves."

As the payment of such losses and claims was not deemed important enough to deserve the notice of either Convention at the time it was held, you ask me to state my views in regard to their recognition by the government.

Though disposed myself to abide by the issue as made up already, I have no hesitation to comply with your request.

The Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution expressly provides as follows:

"The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States, nor any State, shall assume or pay any debt or obligation, incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave, but all such debts, obligations and claims, shall be held illegal and void."

This amendment has been repeatedly approved and agreed to by Democratic State Conventions of the South. It was unanimously adopted as a part of the platform of the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis, on the 28th of June, and was declared by that platform to be "universally accepted as a final settlement of the controversies that engendered civil war."

My own position on this subject had been previously declared on many occasions, and particularly in my first annual message of January 5th, 1875.

In that document, I stated that the Southern people were "bound by the Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth Constitutional Amendments; that they had joined at National Conventions in the nominations of candidates and in the declaration of principles and purposes, which form an authentic acceptance of the results of the war, embodied in the last three amendments to the organic law of the Federal Union, and that they had by the suffrage of all their voters, at the last national election, completed the proof that now they only seek to share with us, and to maintain the common rights of American local self government, in a fraternal union, under the old flag with "one Constitution and one destiny."

I declared at the same time:

"The questions settled by the war are never to be reopened. The adoption of the Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the Federal Constitution closed one great era in our politics. It marked the end forever of the system of human slavery, and of the struggles that grew out of that system. These amendments have been conclusively adopted, and they have been accepted in good faith by all political organizations and the people of all sections. They close the chapter; they are and must be final; all parties hereafter must accept and stand upon them, and henceforth our politics are to turn upon questions of the present and the future, and not upon those of the settled and final past."

Should I be elected President, the provisions of the fourteenth amendment will, so far as depends on me, be maintained, executed and enforced in perfect and absolute good faith. No rebel debt will be assumed or paid. No claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave will be allowed. No claim for any loss or damage incurred by disloyal persons, arising from the late war, whether covered by the fourteenth amendment or not, will be recognized or paid. The cotton tax will not be refunded. I shall deem it my duty to veto every bill providing for the assumption or payment of any debts, losses, damages, claims, or for the refunding of any such tax.

The danger to the National Treasury is not from claims of persons who aided the rebellion, but from claims of persons residing in the Southern States or having property in those States, who were, or pretended to be, or who for the sake of aiding claims now pretended to have been loyal to the Government of the Union. Such claims, even of loyal persons, where they are from acts caused by the operations of war, have been disowned by the public law of civilised nations, condemned by the adjudications of the Supreme Court of the United States, and only find any status by force of specific legislation of Congress. These claims have become stale and are often tainted with fraud. They are nearly always owned in whole or in part by claim agents, by speculators or lobbyists, who have no equity against the taxpayers or the public. They should, in all cases, be scrutinised with jealous care.

The calamities to individuals which were inflicted by the late war are, for the most part, irreparable. The Government cannot recall to life the million of our youth who went to untimely graves, nor compensate the sufferings or sorrow of their relatives and friends. It cannot readjust, between individuals, the burdens of taxation hitherto borne, or of debts incurred to sustain the Government, which are yet to be paid. It cannot apportion anew among our citizens the damages or losses incident to military operations, or resulting in every variety of form from its measures for maintaining its own existence. It has no safe general rule but to let by-gones be by-gones, to turn from the dead past to a new and better future; and, on that basis, to assure peace, reconciliation and fraternity between all sections, classes and races of our people, to the end that all the springs of our productive industries may be quickened, and a new prosperity created in which the evils of the past shall be forgotten.

Very respectfully yours,
SAMUEL J. TILDEN.

Liberals for Tilden.

Many of our readers have doubtless heard Republicans claim that the mass of Liberals were for Hayes and Wheeler. If you chance to hear any of them repeating this oft-told tale, just call their attention to the following list of distinguished Liberals who are outspoken for Tilden, Hendricks and reform; and if, after perusing it, they don't haul in their horns, they will exhibit even more cheek than is possessed by an average Republican, which is almost an impossibility:

Charles Francis Adams, of Massachusetts.
Andrew G. Curtin, Pennsylvania's "war Governor."
Ex-Senator Trumbull, of Illinois.
David A. Wells, of Connecticut.
Wm. Cullen Bryant, of New York.
Parke Godwin, of New York.
Gideon Welles, President Lincoln's Secretary of the Navy.
Justice David Davis, of the Supreme Court, United States.
Ex-Governor Austin Blair, the "war Governor" of Michigan.
Ex-Governor B. Gratz Brown, of Missouri.
George W. Julian, candidate for Vice President on the Free Soil ticket, 1852.
Cassius M. Clay, of Kentucky.
General John M. Palmer, ex-Governor of Illinois.
General William F. Bartlett, of Massachusetts.
Professor W. G. Sumner, of Yale College, who wrote the Republican State platform of 1874, and who has now written the strongest letter of the kind yet published in behalf of Tilden.
Professor A. L. Perry, of Williams College the distinguished political economist.
Colonel Augustus H. Fenn, the Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor of Connecticut last year.
Frank W. Bird, of Massachusetts, the founder of the Republican party.
Ex-Congressman John F. Farnsworth, of Illinois.
Charles Francis Adams, Jr., of Massachusetts.
Colonel Nicholas Smith, representing the Greeley family.
George W. Fenton, of Chautauqua, brother of Senator Fenton.
Colonel Fred A. Conkling, of New York, brother of Senator Conkling.
"Fighting Joe" Hooker.
Charles A. Dana, editor of the Sun.
Colonel Alex. K. McClure, editor of the Philadelphia Times.
Judge Henry R. Selden, of New York.
Howard Potter, of New York.
Charles G. Davis, of Massachusetts.
Ex-Senator Ross, of Kansas.
Ex-Senator Tipton, of Nebraska.
Ex-Senator Cowan, of Pennsylvania.
E. S. Cleveland, late Republican postmaster of Hartford, Connecticut.
D. D. S. Brown, of Monroe county, N. Y.
Gen. E. F. Jones, of Broome county.
Judge Edwin A. Reynolds, of Orleans county.
Col. Charles James, of Orleans county.
Porter Sheldon, of Chautauqua County.
Ex-Governor David P. Lewis, the latest Republican Governor of Alabama.
Judge Daniel S. Gooding, Lincoln elector-at-large in Indiana, 1864.
Ex-Congressman James M. Ashley, of Ohio.
General Jacob Brinkerhoff, of Ohio.
Judge Hoadley, of the Supreme Court of Ohio; supported Hayes for Governor last year.
E. W. Kitridge, the eminent lawyer of Cincinnati; supported Hayes last year.
Charles Reemelin, of Cincinnati, who supported Hayes last year.
Emil Hoffman, of Cincinnati, who supported Hayes last year.
Ex-Lieutenant Governor Jacob Mueller, of Ohio, elected on the Republican ticket in 1871, who supported Hayes last year.
Judge J. H. Stallo, of Cincinnati, who supported Hayes last year.
Frederick Hassaurek, late editor of the Cincinnati Volksblatt, who supported Hayes last year.
August Thieme, editor of the Cleveland Watcher am Erie, who supported Hayes last year.
Colonel Edward Jussen, of Chicago, brother-in-law of Carl Schurz.
Ex-Governor Koerner, of Illinois.
General Franz Sigel, of New York.
Hon. J. R. Cravens, of Indiana.
Wilbur F. Storey, of Illinois.
Joseph Pulitzer, of Missouri.
Hon. Charles R. Thomas, of North Carolina.

A Word to the Workingmen.

What party has controlled the affairs of the nation for the past 16 years? The Republican party. Who has levied and collected enormous taxes, given away millions of acres of our public lands, plundered the National Treasury, squandered our revenues, paralyzed our industries, and closed our mines, rolling mills, furnaces, forges and workshops, and brought our people to starvation, bankruptcy and ruin; thrown thousands of honest men out of work and banished them from their homes to "tramp" upon every thoroughfare and highway in the land in pursuit of employment? Is it not the Republican party that is responsible for all this stagnation in business; for all this misery and woe?

Shall we give this party which has been guilty of these crimes, of this outrageous career, a new lease of power? Shall we vote for Hayes and Wheeler and thus perpetuate the reign of Grantism? Shall we be drawn into a decoy movement and cajoled into the farce of voting for Cooper and Carey, who cannot possibly obtain a single electoral vote, and thereby aid in continuing the Republican party in power? Or shall we act the part of sensible men, and vote in a manner that our ballots will count in the great battle for reform which will come off in November. Is it not folly, is it not madness in us, who have suffered such deep wrongs at the hands of the Republican party to waste our strength upon this Peter Cooper movement, which can bring us no relief.

Shall we not act like wise men and vote with the army of reform that is now marching on under the leadership of those fearless, gallant and honest leaders Tilden and Hendricks? There is but one escape from our present difficulty; there is but one road which will lead us out of our fearful condition, but one course left for us to pursue, and that is to vote for Tilden and Hendricks. Business and working men, shall we not do this, and achieve a victory decisive and complete?

In the event of the election of Tilden and Hendricks, a new era will dawn upon us, which will revive trade, set the industries of the nation in motion, giving employment to laborers, mechanics and artisans in every vocation and calling. Vote for Tilden, Hendricks and a restoration of our crippled industries and a general revival of business.

The Radical Programme in the Palmetto State.

The Radical programme for carrying South Carolina for Hayes has now begun to develop itself. At the moment when the exigencies of the campaign require the services of every Democratic leader, then a system of sweeping arrests will be inaugurated, and the men hurried away from their homes to appear before the United States District Court, to be held in Columbia on the 4th of November. Difficulty in procuring bail and lack of transportation facilities will then prevent their returning to vote or to use their influence in their respective counties. This programme is further borne out from the fact that U. S. Marshal Wallace, whose father is a candidate for re-election in the Fourth Congressional district, now considered doubtful, is endeavoring to have that district heavily garrisoned with troops, although no disturbance has been reported in that section. The violent demonstrations of the negroes still continue, the colored State militia holding their arms, and are now being supplied with ammunition by Chamberlin's officials. At Timmonsville, in Darlington county, last Saturday, a colored militia company paraded under arms, uttering violent threats against the whites and colored Democrats. The rifle clubs having disbanded according to the Governor's proclamation emboldens the blacks and has a tendency to provoke violence. This fact manifested itself at Allendale, in Bardwell county, on Monday, where, at one time, there threatened to be bloodshed, and probably would have been but for the timely arrival of an officer of the regular army. A town constable attempted to arrest a drunken Democratic darkey at a Republican meeting, and was set upon by a crowd of infuriated darkeys, who attempted to rescue the prisoner. Although severely wounded, the constable, aided by a few citizens, managed to lodge him in jail. Soon after the mob made an assault on the jail and began firing on the town authorities. Some dozen shots were fired when a detachment of troops appeared on the scene, scared the moody darkeys and guarded the prisoner. Quiet order was restored. Luckily all the whites in town were absent at a Hampton meeting, a few miles away, or a serious collision might have occurred.

A correspondent who seems to think that he knows what he is talking about and that the Times does not, challenges us to give the names of any of Mosby's guerrillas who have been appointed to office under the present administration. We have not space for the whole list, which we believe to number 25 or 30, but a few examples will suffice, such as William H. Chapman, Mosby's lieutenant colonel, special agent of the Post Office Department, and Samuel F. Chapman, his brother, a captain in Mosby's command, postal car clerk. Mr. Jewell can tell all about these men. Then there is Thomas Y. Mosby, a brother of J. S., and a bushwhacker, gauger of the Fifth Virginia district, not to mention Miss Mosby, a sister, clerk in the Patent Office. Marcy Addison, sergeant in the Black Horse Cavalry, clerk in the Surgeon General's office, comes in in the list of Mosby's proteges, as do John G. Hester lieutenant on the rebel ram Alabama, now special agent in the Department of Justice, and Elias Griswold, major and assistant adjutant general to General Winder, at one time in charge of the Andersonville prison pens, and afterwards of Castle Thunder and the tobacco warehouse prison, appointed last August to an $1,800 clerkship in the Treasury department. If our correspondent insists upon having more, we can add to the list. It's of no consequence, except illustrating the particular class of rebels that the administration takes to.—Phila. Times.

THE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT.

R. B. Hayes was a member of the 39th and 40th Congresses. During that time he distinguished himself only by his votes for subsidies and jobs. March 2, 1867, he voted for a bill making extra allowance to contractors for iron clads, which the Secretary of the Navy testified was backed by one of the strongest lobbies he had ever seen. The allowances were in addition to others already made by a government board. Mr. Hayes voted against the motion to postpone the consideration of the bill; against the motion to lay on the table; and in favor of the bill. An allowance was made under this bill amounting to $250,000, half of which went to Robeson's friend Secor. Logan and Schenck put through the House a bill restoring the iron clad Comanche to its builders, by which $179,000 were taken from the Treasury. The bill was denounced on the floor by Mr. Spaulding, but Mr. Hayes voted for it. Seventeen acts, passed by the public lands to corporations, [illegible] at last session of the House during Hayes' membership

The Columbian.

BROCKWAY & ELWELL, Editors.

BLOOMSBURG, PA.

Friday, Nov. 3, 1876.

A FINAL WORD.

Before another issue of the COLUMBIAN the Presidential contest will have been decided. For twenty years the prospects for Democratic success have not been so cheering, nor have our people gone into a contest with so much vigor. They yearn for a change and demand REFORM. In Tilden and Hendricks we have magnificent leaders, and the Platform is faultless.

There is therefore every inducement to poll our entire vote. Work from early morn until the polls are closed. Do not stop to argue or wrangle with our opponents. The day for discussion has passed, and work now counts. Our enemies are desperate, well organized, with plenty of money, and will capture a vote wherever they can,—by fair means or foul. Do not let them intimidate voters or election boards. Have good men at the polls in every District. If you value honest and economical Government, give the whole day to the cause, and the Republican party will sustain such a defeat that it will know no resurrection.

And now, boys, give them Indiana!

IS IT BANKRUPTCY?

We appeal to you, old men! is there in your recollection, memory of a time so trying, of money so scarce, of work so unprofitable? For sixteen years the Republican party in power have printed millions of money—where is it? And echo answers, "Where?" Pick up the daily papers and the first paragraph that meets your eye is one to the effect that such a manufacturer or such a merchant has failed—failed for hundreds of thousands of dollars. And hundreds of people are ruined by the insolvency.

Pick up a country paper and run your eye over the columns of Sheriff's sales, and follow them to the hammer and see farms and houses sold for one-fifth of their value; and then vote for Hayes and keep this party in power. Within the last year about ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY pieces of real estate have been sold in Columbia county by the Sheriff, besides many lots of personal property. Farms and homes have been swept from the owners for a mere song, and the cry is, "still they go." Do you want this thing to continue? Then vote for Hayes, and the whole country will shortly be "going, GOING, GONE!!"

GOV. TILDEN'S LETTER.

We desire to call the attention of our readers to the letter written by Gov. Tilden to Abram S. Hewitt, Esq. on the subject of "Southern claims," printed on the first page of this issue. This bugaboo of the Republican party is effectually disposed of and the last falsehood of the campaign refuted. Nothing can be more clear and decisive than the language used by Gov. Tilden and timid and doubtful voters who may have fancied that these claims might obtain recognition, in spite of the Constitutional prohibition, in event of Mr. Tilden's election can now rest their souls in peace. In company with the rest of the political falsehoods of Mr. Tilden's enemies, this one has melted away and

"Like the baseless fabric of a vision
Leaves not a wrack behind."

The bankers, bishops and leading clergymen of Charleston, S C., have united in an address to the people of the United States, denying the statements made by Governor Chamberlain, and asserting that there is no defiance of law and order by the white people. A number of the members of the Philadelphia bar have joined in a protest against the President's South Carolina proclamation. Subsequently sixty Northern merchants resident and doing business in Charleston, met and adopted an address to the people of the United States declaring Governor Chamberlain's proclamation unwarranted by the real condition of South Carolina, and fully endorsing the statement of the clergy and bankers.

There was a glorious turn out of the Democracy at Reading on the 26th. It is estimated that 30,000 people were present. There was an immense procession and speeches were made by Gen. McClellan, Ex-Gov. Bigler and Senator Wallace. Two buffaloes were roasted for the people. One unfortunate accident marred the pleasure of the day; the railing to a portico gave way and precipitated thirty persons to the sidewalk, eighteen feet below. Twelve of the unfortunates had limbs fractured or sustained other injuries.

VOTERS BEWARE! THERE ARE THREE TICKETS TO BE VOTED NEXT TUESDAY, ONE HEADED 'STATE' CONTAINS THE NAMES OF ELECTORS; ONE HEADED "JUDICIARY" CONTAINS THE NAMES OF THE TWO ASSOCIATE JUDGES; AND ONE HEADED "COUNTY" CONTAINS THE NAMES OF COUNTY OFFICERS, INCLUDING CONGRESS AND STATE SENATE. BE SURE THAT YOU VOTE ALL THREE TICKETS, BECAUSE THE ELECTORAL TICKET IS PRINTED ON A SEPARATE SLIP.

The Republicans are terribly afraid the rebel claims will not be paid. These claims are mainly held by Republicans jobbers who have bought them at a nominal price, and they know they will not be paid if Tilden is elected! How nervous they are about these claims!

A little over a year ago a Justice of the Peace in this County bought a docket, large enough, as he thought, to last him his term of five years. It is nearly full already. Vote for Hayes and it will soon be full.

MR. F. W. HUGHES.

This gentleman, who is an excellent lawyer, but a detestable politician, was a member of the Democratic State Convention at Erie in 1875, and by his efforts in behalf of a soft money plank in the platform probably contributed more than any other man in the State to the defeat of his party that Fall. He considers himself a Democrat, we believe, but he is not, on the contrary he is a bitter though not an avowed enemy of the party. He is a monomaniac on the "soft" money question and, like many others, has gone mad over this hobby. A report gained currency, sometime since, that Mr. Hughes had declared his intention of supporting Mr. Tilden and he was warmly commended for his determination. The report was a false one and Mr. Hughes sent a despatch to the press in which he "denounces" "the slander" that he had "agreed to support Tilden" and asserts that he "would as soon trust Hayes with the protection of the ballot as Tilden." A model Democrat, truly, is the indignant Mr. Hughes. A man, who, calling himself a member of the Democratic party, considers the statement that he will support his party's candidate for President "a slander."

Mr. Hughes has an undoubted right to think and vote as he chooses, but holding the opinions that he does, he should at least be manly enough to avow himself no Democrat and refrain from participation in the councils of the party henceforth.

We consider Mr. Hughes to be a stumbling block and rock of offence to the honest and patriotic voter and caution all Democrats to avoid him, lest they be deceived and go astray. The Democratic party, be assured, is more ashamed of Mr. Hughes than he of it.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

PENNSYLVANIA, ss:

[L. S.] In the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania: John F. Hartranft, Governor of the said Commonwealth.

A PROCLAMATION.

Notwithstanding the present depression of business, and the accompanying distress, the people of this country continue to enjoy manifold blessings, and the more especially in the preservation of their institutions and liberties, through the vicissitudes of a century, and in the steadfast faith that the light of God's favor is only temporarily dimmed by the clouds that darken the country.

Now, therefore, I, John F. Hartranft, Governor of Pennsylvania, do recommend that the good people of this Commonwealth, laying aside all secular occupations, assemble together on the 30th day of November, 1876, being the same day set apart therefor by the President of the United States, to give thanks to Almighty God for his continued kindness, and to merit by prayers and thankfulness the fulfillment of all reasonable hopes, and the gratification of all just desires.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this 31st day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and of the Commonwealth the one hundred and first. J. F. HARTRANFT.

By the Governor:

M. S. QUAY,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

POOL SELLING.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—The last sales of pools on the Presidential election at the International Exchange in this city, which took place this evening, were as follows:

On the general result—Tilden, $100; Hayes, $80.

On the result in New York City and State—Tilden, $100; Hayes, $40.

In New Jersey—$100 to $55 on Tilden.

In Connecticut—$100 to $72 and $80 on Tilden.

In Indiana—$100 to $75 on Tilden.

In Pennsylvania—$35 to $12 on Hayes.

$200 were offered that Tilden would get a larger majority in New York than Hayes would receive from Ohio and Pennsylvania together. No takers.

Any of our Republican friends who are sure that Hayes will be elected can make a fortune by hieing to Philadelphia or New York.

A cotemporary accuses us of opposing Mr Collins' election This is untrue. His name is among the list of candidates in the COLUMBIAN, and no tickets have been printed at this office which did not contain his name Of course we were not enthusiastic over his alleged nomination, for we considered that the written pledge given by him and his conferees two years ago when Columbia county nominated him, should have been carried out. It was as follows·

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Oct. 13, 1874.

We, the undersigned, agree that F. D. Collins shall be a candidate for but one term, and that we will use all honorable means to nominate C. B. Brockway as the next candidate for Congress.

F. D. COLLINS,
F. A. BEAMISH,
D. P. BARTON,
S. W. TRIMMER.

We have refrained from giving the inside history of the Conference, because it would have done no good, and might have done some harm. Mr. Waller is not entitled to the support of the Democratic party of this District, nor will he receive any considerable number of votes from it

It is amusing to read the indignant outbursts of the Republican papers, over the alleged discovery of fraudulent tax receipts in Philadelphia, in the hands of Democrats. A stranger would imagine that such a thing as an illegal tax receipt had never before been heard of in the Pilgrim city. Why, this very day, there are bushels of them in the hands of Republican politicians there, and 50,000 illegal names on the registry lists by which to use them. The Pilgrim misrulers of Philadelphia have used these blanks for years and the assumed indignation of the partisan papers is both absurd and impudent. Sam Josephs, one of the so-called Democrats who had these receipts in his possession is not a Democrat and was denied recognition at the last Democratic State Convention. We believe the whole affair to be a Republican trick.

An investigation of accounts for county and city officers with the Commonwealth, reveals the fact that Peter A. B. Widener, Republican city Treas., Phila., is behind in his accounts $308,642.30. A neat little sum truly for an officer to owe the Commonwealth. It remains now to be seen whether the State will get the amount due. The Republican government of Philadelphia has fixed upon that city a debt of some seventy millions and Mr. Widener has only done his share in running up an individual bill of indebtedness.

BEWARE OF HOORBACKS.

It is the invariable custom of our opponents to circulate outrageous lies a few days before the election, well knowing that they cannot be exposed in time. It is an old dodge of theirs, and we therefore warn our readers not to heed any of these late slanders. If true, they would have been trotted out long ago, especially as they would have effected Ohio and Indiana.

WHAT OUR SOLDIERS WANT.

TILDEN, REFORM AND PEACE.

PHILADELPHIA, October 28, 1876.

To the People of Pennsylvania, from the Soldiers whom she sent into the Field: Eleven years have passed since we brought the war of the rebellion to a close. Still the march of armed men is heard within the borders of our sister States, and that noble organization of which we were once so proud of being a part—the United States army—is now being used by the government for the ignoble and unconstitutional purpose of crushing out the right of self-government in some of the Southern States. At Appomattox Court House the southern troops surrendered to the Army of the Potomac and laid down their arms in good faith, and we pledged ourselves to protect them. These pledges the present administration has violated.

The war is over, yet peace has not followed, and prosperity has not returned with the car of victory to bless the country. Many of our comrades laid down their lives, and many more shed their blood that the country might be preserved united in all its integrity, but bad men have used the powers of the government to foster and keep alive the bitter feelings and sectional animosities engendered by the late struggle. Out of respect for the memory of our dead comrades we feel called upon to again step to the front and declare that they have not died in vain; that the war is over and we must and shall have peace. Stand by us now in our efforts to purify and reform the government we preserved by changing the administration and electing Samuel J. Tilden to the Presidency. Let us have an administration actuated by "malice towards none, charity to all."

Signed by 323 other officers and 22,000 non-commissioned officers and enlisted men.

The farmers as owners of the soil cannot escape taxation like the bondholders and bankers. If any one farm is unprofitable or unproductive, the burden really falls upon the neighboring land. We have a great farm in the Southern country; will the farmers of the North vote to double their own burdens by destroying the interests of the South. An idle acre in the South means a heavier tax upon the crop grown on an improved acre in the North. Northern farmers will vote so that every acre in the United States may yield its full crop and fair profi..

The Republicans sing small about the "solid South" since their senseless cry was met by the statement of the overwhelming fact that Republicanism increased the debt of the Southern States from 1865 to 1872 from $56,034,198 to the enormous sum of $315,181,143. If this is not enough to make a "solid South" against the Republican party, pray what more is necessary? A people that would prolong the power of such a party would be called worse than insane. They are going for a change.

This Republican prating of honesty, purity and virtue strikes us as tolerably cool, considering that in nearly every penitentiary in the United States there are to-day Republican politicians and ex-office holders convicted of every grade of stealing, and that for every Republican thief behind the bars there are scores of Republican thieves plying their vocation outside.—Pittsburg Post.

The New York Journal of Commerce (independent) says: The assumption that the Democratic party cannot be trusted to keep faith with the Government creditors is a very grave impertinence in the face of historical facts that cannot be controverted. When the question has had any practical importance in any part of this country the Democrats have always been found on the right side, and the Republicans have led the opposition.

A frightful accident occurred on the Delaware and Lackawanna Railroad at Lehigh Summit, 22 miles from Scranton on Monday evening, by which two persons were killed, five fatally injured and sixteen wounded. A very heavy passenger train laden with visitors to the Centennial was much behind time and, while stopping to replace a broken coupling, was run into by a coal train with the sad results noted.

The riband press is now quoting from the organs—and asking them what they think now—such remarks as this from the Tribune of last Saturday: "Governor Tilden is a sagacious man. He knows that these Southern demands are injuring his party. Why does he not state that, if elected, he will veto every bill for the payment of losses to men who cannot prove their loyalty? He does not dare." Unfortunately for the organs, he did dare.

Senator Patterson says there is "five years of good stealing in South Carolina yet," and Grant has sent the soldiers down there to help do it. Doubtless he also shares the plunder. Vote for Hayes and in four years we may have them here in Pennsylvania.

The merchants, and clergymen and Bishops and bankers of Charleston, and the lawyers of Philadelphia, without distinction of party have denounced Grant's military usurpation, and pronounced the attempt to run an election with bayonets instead of ballots, infamous.

The Republicans have given up the election of Hayes, and are bending all their energies to the election of members of Congress, hoping to prevent Reform by carrying the Congress Don't let them.

Edward S Stokes, the murderer of the notorious Jas. Fisk, jr. was released from the Auburn Penitentiary on Saturday last, having served the full term of his imprisonment.

The Democratic Congress of last session saved the country THIRTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS. Do you want to see it squandered and stolen? If you do, vote for Hayes.

The heretofore uncontested position of Ananias Hays as the champion liar of the age is no longer his. Another hand has torn the laurels from his brow and now proudly wears them on his own wavy locks. Blaine of Maine is the successor of Hayes—and far exceeds him in mendacity. Blaine appears to have started in this campaign with a firm and settled idea that the more falsehoods there were told the stronger would be the chances for Republican success. Nobly has he carried out this idea and most successfully has he advanced to the front rank of falsifiers. In one of his recent speeches he asserted that United States flags did not fly anywhere in Georgia except on Custom Houses and Post offices. Gov. Smith, Senator Gordon and A. R. Lawton, elector at large for the State, flatly deny this and cite instances of buildings where the flag is always floating. In all public meetings it is and has been a conspicuous feature in the decorations. A nice creature for President was Blaine of Maine!

In the late elections the whole power of the Government was thrown on the Republican side, with a disregard of decency such as has never before been witnessed. Nothing was left undone that organizing ability, unlimited resources, wicked ingenuity, and corrupt combinations could achieve. And the outcome of all is, that Indiana is irreparably lost, and Ohio is barely saved by the skin of its teeth.—N. Y. Sun.

The expenses of the White House under Democratic rule were $47,847.50. Under Republican rule they are $108,264.85. Is not the difference $60,417.35, rather a high price to pay for the honor of having a Republican in the White House? Unfortunately this is only an example of the general profligacy of Republican rule. The same spirit of reckless extravagance runs through the whole service, from the President down to the lowest official.

"The light in the East" is what the Rads now call Vermont. She was a light in the East in 1812, when her Legislature passed an act prohibiting her militia from leaving the State to aid in the national defence. She has been voting the anti-Democratic ticket ever since.

Have you seen as many Sheriff's sales in Columbia county in five years as there have been within the last year? Vote for Hayes and there'll be more of them.

Can't we make every voting precinct in the county democratic this year? Let's "try" as General Miller said, at the battle of Lundy's Lane.

The United States Treasury Department is authorized by law to employ 400 persons. It actually employs 2,800 persons, or seven times as many as it has warrant of law to employ.

Hayes, the Arctic explorer, is giving his support to Hayes. He's on the wrong way to the polls again.—Boston Post.

Who drove the plundering Belknap from power? The Democrats. Do you want him back? If you do, vote for Hayes.

On Tuesday evening, while stopping at the house of John McNeal, at Black Creek, the horse and buggy of Gil. Dreisbach was taken by a man named Levi Kishbaugh, of Nescopeck, who drove the horse off towards Berwick, as hard as the animal could go. At Conyghan Mr. Dreisbach's overcoat fell out and was picked up, when it was found the swift driven team was Mr. Dreisbach's. It at once occured to Wm. Charles that all could not be right, and he immediately sent a messenger on a running horse after the fugitive. He was overtaken at the foot of the mountain, his horse dripping wet. At first he refused to return, but soon concluded differently. He was brought into town yesterday morning about 2 o'clock, and gave bonds to appear at court. We opine when he gets out of State's prison he will know better than to repeat the undertaking.—Democrat, Oct. 26th.

Important to Centennial Visitors.

Many of our readers who yet intend to visit Philadelphia, will wish to do so at the least possible cost and trouble. They will not wish to pay hotel rates when they can obtain good accommodations at private and boarding houses at one-third hotel rates. During September and October the crowds will be so large that they cannot be accomodated at hotels, and to avoid trouble on their arrival all should know where they are going to stop, before leaving home. You can obtain good accommodations by the week for from $5 to $10, or by the day from $1 to $2. To do this you must write to J. Weaver & Co., 1318 Market street, Philadelphia, and they will, on receipt of $1, to pay them for their trouble and expense, send you a list of one hundred boarding houses, giving the prices charged by the day or week. You can then select a place for yourself, and make arrangements direct with the parties you wish to stop with. In this way you can save from $10 to $25. Should you wish to stop at a hotel they will make all necessary arrangements for you and charge you but $1. This is our advice. Take it. State what paper you saw this in.

THE GREAT DISCOVERY!

E. F. KUNKEL'S BITTER WINE OF IRON. For the cure of weak stomach, general debility, indigestion, disease of the nervous system, constipation, acidity of the stomach, and all cases requiring a tonic.

The wine includes the most agreeable and efficient salt of Iron we possess; Citrate of Magnesia Oxide, combined with the most energetic of vegetable tonics —Yel ow Peruvian Bark.

The effect in many cases of debility, loss of appetite, and general prostration, of an efficient salt of Iron combined with valuable Nerve tonic, is most happy. It augments the appetite, raises the pulse, takes off muscular flabbiness, removes the pallor of debility, and gives a florid vigor to the countenance.

Do you want something to strengthen you? Do you want a good appetite? Do you want to build up your constitution? Do you want to feel well? Do you want to get rid of nervousness? Do you want energy? Do you want to sleep well? Do you want brisk and vigorous feelings? If you do, try Kunkel's Wine of Iron.

This truly valuable tonic has been thoroughly tested by all classes of the community, that it is now deemed indispensables as a Tonic medicine. It costs but little, purifies the blood and gives tone to the stomach, renovates the system and prolongs life.

I now only ask a trial of this valuable Tonic. Price $1. per bottle. E. F. KUNKEL, Sole Proprietor Philadelphia, Pa. Ask your druggist for Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron, and take no other make. Sold only in $1. bottles. All others are counterfeit, so beware of them.

Buy six bottles for $5.

Worms Removed Alive.

E. F. Kunkel's worm syrup never fails to destroy Pin, Seat and Stomach worms. Dr. Kunkel is the only successful Physician in this country for the removal of worms. He removes Tape worms with head and all complete, alive in 2 hours, and no fee until removed. Send for circular, or call on your Druggist and get a bottle of Kunkel's worm Syrup. Price $1. It never fails. Nov.

NOTICE TO POSTMASTERS.—Those postmasters who hereafter return subscribers' papers to this office simply marked "refused," and unaccompanied by a letter, as required by law, will be charged with the papers from the date of such illegal notification until notice is given in a proper way. We have reached the conclusion that our time is about as valuable as that of postmasters generally, and we do not propose after this to spend half a morning hunting up a name because a postmaster is too lazy to fill out a blank.

A patent was granted W. Abbott of Espy, last week, for an ear muffler.

Can the reverend rioter who runs the Republicum remember who requested a rope to hang William Eyer?

GO TO THE POLLS EARLY AND VOTE, THEN GO AND SECURE THE VOTES OF YOUR TILDEN NEIGHBORS.

Send in full returns on Tuesday night. Those from the different States will be received at the Opera House as rapidly as sent.

Cottage prayer meetings have become popular of late. One was held in a dwelling on East Rock street last Tuesday evening, which was very successful.

Bets are offered that neither Tilden nor Hayes will be inaugurated on the 4th of March Don't take them. Any almanac will tell you why not.

A dispatch from Centralia announces the arrest of Anthony Lally, of that place, charged with complicity in the Langdon murder, at Audenreid.—Hazleton Sentinel.

E. R. Ikeler Esq. with his family has moved into the house on Market Street adjoining William Neal's. Mr. Ikeler proposes to build a dwelling in the Spring.

The Montour American says Simon Cameron passed through Danville on Friday last, and Dr. Brower withdraws as the greenback candidate for Assembly. Queer, isn't it?

An exchange says that black bass are plentiful in the Susquehanna river. They ought to be in this vicinity for there are mighty few of them that come out of it.

Buckley was over at Centralia the other day. Wonder if he told the boys, Hayes was a member of the American Alliance, alias a Know Nothing?

The printers of the COLUMBIAN office desire to return their thanks for a liberal supply of wedding cake and fruit and wish Mr. Elwell and his bride a long lease of life and happiness without stint.

We are pleased to hear that our friend Silas McHenry, of Stillwater, who has been dangerously ill, is slowly recovering. We hope for his speedy return to health as the community cannot spare such "good men and true" as he.

The unusual judgment is that Col. C. G. Jackson has made the great speech of the campaign. —Republican.

Wherein our neighbor differs from the usual judgment of everybody else.

Nervousness and Drowsiness. These sad afflictions so destructive both to business and pleasure, arise from that morbid condition of the body which is relieved by an occasional dose of Dr. Bull's Vegetable Pills. Try them, they will do you good

Boys! we must have 2500 majority for Tilden in Columbia county next Tuesday. We have the stuff only get out the voters. Think what a splendid record Columbia county will make for Reform and Peace by TWENTY FIVE HUNDRED MAJORITY.

Col. C. G. Jackson, of Berwick, read that speech of his again, last Monday night, in the Opera House. The audience was large—much larger than the speech. We can understand now why Mr. Buckalew survived after its first rendition in Berwick. It was diaphanous—very.

Bradley of the Montour 'American' says he saw some Ayrshire ducks at the Danville Fair. Wonder if they had any Devon geese or Cotswold Turkeys.—Bloomsburg Journal.

No, but there was some half breeds of the equinine species that would have been an improvement upon some editors.—Montour American.

The question now arises, what sort of a species is the "equinine?" The American does not seem to be more happy in its zoological than in its ornithological allusions.

The Philadelphia Times, of Monday contains a highly sensational article, charging that money was paid to the Mollie Maguires to secure their support for Hartranft, in 1875. The whole thing is a political lie, intended to damage the Republican ticket next month.—Miltonian.

Well, if it is a "political lie" your Republican friend Gen. Sigfried must be a "political liar," for he acknowledges that the money was paid to Slattery. Of course no one is expected to believe the statement that nothing was to be returned as an equivalent for the money. People in these hard times don't pay such men as Slattery and his friends $2000 without a valuable consideration. The Miltonian can perhaps settle the matter with Sigfried.

At the Democratic meeting last Saturday evening the Opera House was filled to overflowing. Hon. C. R. Buckalew made a brief but very happy speech which was received with enthusiasm. J. O. Parker Esq of Williamsport followed in a logical and eloquent address and Hon. R. P. Allen, Senator from this district, addressed the audience in a very happy vein of humor and sound sense and was loudly applauded. The Drum Corps and the Glee Club were both present. The Club sang several pieces in good style and it is a matter of regret that their organization had not been effected earlier in the campaign.

Messers. Allen and Parker spoke at Benton on Saturday afternoon to a large and appreciative audience.

The Reverend Daniel A. Beckley, an ex-Methodist preacher, and one of the editors of the Republican, issues an illegal supplement with the last number of his paper, the leading article in which is a speech of Bob Ingersoll, the atheist. Here are some of Ingersoll's opinions—nice stuff for a preacher to endorse:

"To be convinced that the Bible is simply and purely a barbarian invention—read it."

"For more than fifty generations the Church has carried the black flag. With the heart of a fiend she has hated; with the clutch of avarice she has grasped; with the jaws of a dragon she has devoured; pitiless as famine, merciless as fire, with the conscience of a serpent; such is the history of the Church of God."

HYMENEAL.

On Thursday, the 26th day of October, Mr. George E. Elwell and Miss Mary A. McKelvy were bound by the silken cords of matrimony and embarked on the voyage of married life under the happiest auspices. If a fair beginning augurs future happiness, then may the bride and groom look forward to as blissful an existence as the warmest of their many friends could wish them. From the arrival of the first guest to the flinging of the luck-giving shoe after the receding carriage nothing occurred to mar the joyousness of the occasion.

The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. I. W. McKelvy, and the brief but solemn service of the Episcopal Church was read by Rev. A. A. Marple of Scranton. The bride was attired in a delicate ashes-of-roses silk and wore the orthodox bridal veil and orange blossoms. The bridesmaids were three in number: Miss Elwell wore an ashes-of-roses silk waist and white organdie skirt and light pink tea roses for ornaments: Miss Sloan wore a light blue silk waist, white organdie skirt and cream colored tea roses: Miss Sanderson, of Lock Haven, wore a silk waist of delicate salmon color with white organdie skirt, with flowers to match the waist. All three had on half veils of illusion. The groomsmen were F. D. Koons, W. C. McKinney and N. U. Funk. They were in full evening dress as were also the invited guests, both ladies and gentlemen. [illegible] that on such occasion the bride and attendant maids will look well—it is an indisputable fact that the expectation on this occasion was amply fulfilled.

After the fateful words had been spoken which made the young couple man and wife, the clergyman turned to the guests and said that, twenty five years before, he had married the father and mother of the bride and that in renewal of the vows then spoken and as a token of their long and happy married life the bridegroom of the years gone by would place another wedding ring upon the hand of his consort. This was done and the effect produced was that of a dual wedding, to the great delight of all the witnesses.

A delicious supper (or dinner?) was then partaken of, and when justice had been done to the viands, the bride and groom took leave of their friends and proceeded to the railroad station followed by such warm and earnest wishes for future welfare as but seldom fall to the lot of the newly wedded. When the bridal party had disappeared from view, dancing was inaugurated and "all went merry" as the oft quoted "marriage bell."

The presents received were very beautiful, embracing articles both useful and ornamental of beautiful designs and great value, and comprising silver-ware, china, glass ware, paintings, books &c.

In addition to the many residents of town the following persons from other places were present: J. W. Chemberlin and wife of Plymouth, G. A. Yorks and wife and C. G. Yorks and wife of Danville, Rev. A. A. Marple and wife, Miss Mary Marple, Clark Marple, Will Marple, George Sanderson and Anna Sanderson, of Scranton, Mrs. J. P. Kirby of Towanda, C. W. McKelvy and wife and Judge M. G. Hughes of Catawissa, E. W. Fulton and wife, Lloyd Paxton, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Harman of Rupert, Miss Woodward of Reading, Miss Brown and Miss Charles of Angelica, N. Y.

Taking all things into consideration we do not remember to have ever been present at a more pleasant or thoroughly enjoyable wedding. We are sure that we express the general opinion when we prophesy that Bloomsburg will contain no happier or more esteemed husband and wife than George E. Elwell and his bride.

Mr. F. D. Koons, son of our townsman W. B. Koons Esq. was married on Tuesday last to Miss Josephine Chase, daughter of Joseph Chase Esq. of Scranton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Logan at the house of the bride's father. Invitations had been extended to family connexions and a few friends. The wedding presents were many and valuable. Our best wishes go with the happy couple and our thanks are due and hereby returned for a bountiful supply of wedding cake.

Examine closely your tickets before voting, and see that the names correspond with those in the COLUMBIAN. The Radicals in their desperation will hire as many rotten Democrats as they can to peddle out spurious tickets.

The members of the Hook & Ladder Co., took their apparatus out on Tuesday evening and practised the art of erecting ladders, carrying buckets &c. A good idea, which should be repeated as often as possible. Discipline at fires is indispensable.

The energies of the youth of Bloomsburg were largely expended in the hurling of cabbages and the scattering of corn last Tuesday night—the same being Hallow E'en. The E'en has been very infrequently observed of late years.

Baltzer Leacock, who is widely known as the most successful sportsman in Bloomsburg, shot on Wednesday morning last eleven partridges, seven large English snipe and a woodcock. At no time was he distant from town over a mile and a half.

The farmers are the real proprietors of the United States. Will they vote to increase the value of their lands and crops by decreasing taxation, or to mortgage their farms and waste their profits by continuing high taxes for the benefit of rings?

If the Republicans have detected Dr. Trimmer in issuing fraudulent naturalization papers, why have they not arrested him? They could then have an opportunity to prove the charge and thus defeat him. "Too thin," Col Jackson. It will do on the stump, where a man has no regard as to the truth of the matter alleged.

The house of B. Frank Zarr on East Street was entered by a thief on Friday night who stole several articles of clothing. Louis Bernhard's dwelling on Fifth Street was also entered the same night and a pair of boots and a new hat carried away. In both houses articles of great value exposed to the view of the thief were left untouched.

How is this? Mr. Beckley, Post Master and Editor of the Republican, in direct violation of law, has smuggled into his paper a vile campaign sheet published abroad, brimful of lies, which did not dare see the light of day until just before the election. When a sworn officer thus deliberately violates the law, people know how much faith to put in his utterances.

Mrs. McCron, wife of Rev. Dr. McCron, of the Lutheran church of this town, met with a severe and probably fatal accident on Thursday of last week. In some manner not known she fell down the stairs leading to the cellar of her residence, cutting a frightful gash in the scalp and bruising her body. At this writing she lies in a very precarious condition.

A correspondent in Constantine Michigan, writes very hopefully concerning the chances of Tilden and Hendricks in that State and thinks the election of a Democratic Governor assured. We trust these predictions may be fulfilled and believe with our correspondent that the chances for Democratic success are greatly enhanced by the speeches of Blaine of Maine.

Last Saturday evening a quarrel took place between a number of men at Locustdale, on the borders of this county, and subsequently one of the party, named John Roshen was waylaid and shot dead. Three men, Laughlin, Sennen and Calligan have been arrested as the murderers. The murder, it is said, was committed in this county, ten feet inside of the line, but whether the trial will take place here we cannot say.

THE DEATH OF PETER ENT.

On Saturday, last the sad intelligence reached us that Peter Ent was no more. He died that morning between the hours of nine and ten o'clock. Mr. Ent had been in ill health for a long time and his demise was not entirely unexpected. The immediate cause of death was chronic bronchitis, but he had suffered from an affection of the heart, which doubtless, had seriously impaired his health and conduced to the fatal result. The funeral took place on Tuesday and was largely attended.

Peter Ent was born in Roaring Creek Valley, February 24th 1811 and was therefore in the 65th year of his age. He learned the carpenter's trade with George Mears and finished his trade when about 21 years old. He married Miss Sarah H. Myers, October 15th 1833, by whom he had five children. Of these Wellington H. died in 1871: William M. in 1869 and Ural H., Robert S. and Oscar P. survive. In 1839 or 1833 he moved to Light Street where he has since resided. He followed his trade until 1852, with great activity, erecting buildings and bridges in all parts of the county. In 1846 he was elected County Commissioner and served for three years. During his term of service the County seat was removed from Danville to Bloomsburg and the present County buildings were erected. In December 1849 he engaged in the mercantile business at Light Street and continued therein until 1853. In 1853, '54 and '55 he was Collector [illegible] tolls at Beach Haven. In 1857 and '58 he served as Representative in the State Legislature for the district then composed of the counties of Columbia, Montour, Sullivan and Wyoming. In 1858 he entered into partnership with George Martz, in the iron manufacturing, milling and mercantile business, under the firm name of Martz & Ent. In 1861 he bought Martz's interest and continued the mill and store until 1865, when in company with his son he again embarked in the manufacture of iron under the firm name of Peter Ent & Son, and continued until 1868. In 1871 he relinquished the mercantile business and until the end of his life gave his attention to milling and lumbering.

Mr. Ent's life has been one of unceasing business activity. He was known throughout the country and universally respected for his many personal virtues, his honesty and his energy. His influence in the community was very large and was never exerted for other than good ends. His friends could be numbered by scores and there will be genuine sorrow in every part of the county when this report of his death is read.

At a ripe age, after an active and useful life, the spirit of a good man has passed to Him who gave it, and he we trust is now enjoying that perfect rest which follows a career on earth characterized by charity and beneficence.

GUARD WELL YOUR TICKETS. IT IS AN OLD TRICK OF THE REPUBLICANS TO STEAL THEM, AND IF POSSIBLE SUBSTITUTE THEIR OWN, KNOWING IT TO BE IMPOSSIBLE TO WRITE OUT THE WHOLE ELECTORAL TICKET. PUT THEM IN SAFE PLACES, AND ANY MAN CAUGHT TAMPERING WITH THEM, HAVE ARRESTED AT ONCE.

DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS.

Democratic meetings will be held in the county as follows:

Pine Summit, Friday evening Nov. 3d.
Jersey Town, Friday evening Nov. 3d.
Catawissa, Friday evening Nov. 3d.
N Jackson Union Church, Saturday evening ov. 4th.
Centralia, Saturday evening Nov. 4th.
Berwick Monday evening Nov. 6th.

Each and every Democrat in the county should from this time to the closing of the polls on election day work with a will to secure the largest majority possible. This election is one of vital importance and no true lover of his country should fail to cast his ballot on November 7th for Tilden and Reform nor should he fail to see to it that his neighbor does likewise.

The Republican, after abusing the "Fishingcreek Confederacy" without stint, now coaxingly says:

"The beautiful Valley of the Fishingcreek by means of a railroad would become one of the richest in this country."

The milk in this cocoa-nut means a bid for Democratic votes for Waller. It is rather unfortunate for Mr. Waller, who is an estimable gentleman, that his chief backer is Mr. Beckley, who has heaped more foul abuse upon the Democracy than any blackguard we have known.

On the 20th day of July last a quarrel arose between James Stout and James Archie, in the course of which Archie was stabbed in nine places and seriously injured. Stout fled and was not arrested until the 30th of October, at which date he returned to town. On the following day he was committed, in default of $500 bail, by J. J. Brower Esq. to answer the charge of aggravated assault and battery. Archie was held to bail in $200 to answer a charge of assault and battery on Stout. Rev. John Thomas entered into recognizance for the appearance of Archie at Court.

CAMP FIRES BURNING.

A very satisfactory Democratic meeting was held in Light Street last Friday evening. An imperfect notice prevented a large attendance. Hon. C. R. Buckalew addressed the meeting.

There was a Democratic meeting in Sugarloaf, Oct 25. William Smith of Benton delivered an able address, which was received with hearty applause.

A fine Democratic meeting was held in the hall of the Knights of Pythias at Midlin Cross Roads on Tuesday evening. R. R. Little and T. Jeff Vanderslice delivered addresses.

Col. J. G. Freeze and B. F. Zarr Esq. addressed a large meeting at Orangeville on Tuesday evening.

There was a Democratic meeting and pole raising at Afton last Tuesday evening. Although no extended notice had been given, a very large crowd gathered and as the School House would not hold half of those assembled the meeting was held in the open air. The pole was a fine hickory 102 feet high. Capt Brockway delivered an address. At a recent Republican meeting in the same locality no difficulty was experienced in accommodating all present in the School House.

E. E. Orvis Esq. addressed a large and attentive audience at Espy last Tuesday evening.

We expect a good report from Scott on the 7th.

There were three Democratic meetings held on Wednesday night last; one at Rupert which was addressed by Capt. Brockway and R. R. Little Esq.; one at Buckhorn where E. E. Orvis Esq. and T. Jeff. Vanderslice Esq. delivered addresses and one at Bendertown which was addressed by Col. Freeze and C. G. Barkley Esq.

POSITIVE RESULTS. There are numerous remedies that cure sometimes and become trusted as useful, but none have ever proved so effectual—cured so many and such remarkable cases—as Dr. Ayer's medicines.

The Cherry Pectoral has restored great numbers of patients who were believed to be hopelessly affected with consumption.

Ague Cure breaks up chills and fever quickly and surely.

Ayer's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla eradicates scrofula and impurities of the blood, cleanses the system and restores it to vigorous health. By its timely use many troublesome disorders that cause a decline of health are expelled or cured.

Ayer's Pills and effects are too well known everywhere to require any commendation from us here.—Scranton (Pa) Times.

Croup.

From Mr. James Grimes, of Mt. Pleasant, Columbia county, Pa.

"About three years ago, our daughter now about twelve years of age, was severely afflicted with Croup. A general irritation of the lungs followed, producing a hectic cough which became almost constant. Swelling of the temples and other indications of Consumption, were also apparent and her life was despaired of by her physician. At this critical moment we were induced to give Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry a trial and after she had taken one bottle we found her so much relieved that we discontinued its use. Since that time we have used the Balsam in our family in cases of Coughs and Colds and believe it to be a superior remedy for all diseases of the lungs."

50 cents and $1 a bottle. Sold by all druggists.

Worthy of Remembrance.

Why will you suffer violent pain, or be made uncomfortable, distressed in mind or body, when you can be instantly relieved and quickly cured by Benson's Capcine Porous Plasters. The ordinary Porous Plaster is an article of merit, yet its action is too slow, requiring days and weeks of continuous wear to effect a cure. Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster, being a great improvement over them, relieves you instantly and cures you quicker than any known plaster, liniment or compound.

Their action is more powerful than electricity and more certain. They are purely vegetable contain no mineral or metallic poisons. Their composition and properties are founded upon true medical skill, and are in no sense a patent medicine. They are endorsed by thousands of Physicians and Druggists of unimpeachable reputation, as being an article of genuine merit and worthy of public confidence. Try them and be convinced.
